EIU OFFERS COMPUTER PROGRAMMING COURSE

CHARLESTON – Eastern Illinois University's School of Adult and Continuing Education is offering a weekend course on computer programming tricks to students and community.

Those enrolled in the course will learn computer programming tricks to become more efficient in beginning algebra, calculus, finance math and graphing.

The course will be held Friday, May 5, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. and Saturday, May 6, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. It will be held in EIU's Old Main Building in Room 304, and the cost is $45 per person.

To register for the course or for additional information, contact the School of Adult and Continuing Education Center for Continuing Professional Development at (217) 581-5116.
